

The people worshiped Mother Earth as a goddess named Bhumi. She was very upset by the deaths.

In the form of a sacred cow, she went to the heaven of Lord Vishnu, the greatest of all the gods. With her came Lord Brahma, creator of the universe, and many other gods. Together they all begged Lord Vishnu for his help.

Lord Vishnu said, "Do not worry. I will be reborn on earth as a child named Krishna. I will destroy all the evil demon kings and bring peace once again to the earth."
